1.1 Introduction

You have been arrested for a drug-related crime and, therefore, have been identified as a person who may have a drug addiction and/or a drug addiction and co-occurring mental health disorder. You are being given an opportunity to participate in Clay County's Adult Drug Court (ADC). ADC is one of nine Problem-Solving Courts (PSCs) operating in the Fourth Judicial Circuit designed to help individuals like you get off drugs, learn how to live without drugs, restore your life, and restore your family. Upon successful completion of ADC, if you entered ADC under a pre-trial intervention program/prosecution diversion, you will have your charges dismissed by the State Attorney's Office. If you entered the program as condition of the sentence (condition of probation) imposed by the Court, successful completion of the ADC program will have provided compliance with that probation task. Such compliance may be used to pursue early termination of probation (if applicable) and will possibly avoid serving a prison sentence (if applicable).

This handbook is designed to answer questions, address concerns, and provide overall information about the ADC Program. As a participant, you will be expected to follow the instructions given in ADC by the judge and comply with the treatment plan developed for you by your treatment team. This handbook will detail what is expected of you as an ADC participant and review general program information. You are required to read and abide by all rules and procedures outlined in this handbook and are encouraged to share this handbook with family and friends.

1.2 Program Description

The Clay County Adult Drug Court Program is a court-supervised, comprehensive treatment program for nonviolent defendants. This is a program which includes regular court appearances before a designated judge, intensive individual, group, or residential substance abuse or substance abuse and co-occurring mental health treatment, random observed drug and alcohol testing, regular attendance at 12-step/sober-support meetings (Narcotics Anonymous, Alcoholics Anonymous, Rational Recovery, etc.), and participation in sober pro-social events. The ADC Program is a combined effort of the State Attorney's Office, Public Defender's Office, Court Administration, the Department of Corrections/Law Enforcement, and Community Treatment Providers. You will be assisted with obtaining educational and skills assessments and will be provided with referrals for vocational training, educational programs, and/or job placement services as well as transitional/halfway housing. The program length, determined by your individual progress will be no less than one year. However, the time period may be extended if necessary to successfully complete and graduate from ADC.

Following arrest, if determined to be eligible, you may be offered a choice between ADC and prosecution by the State of Florida for the pending charges. Eligibility for acceptance into the program shall be made upon determination that you meet the established clinical, legal, and suitability requirements for ADC as determined by the ADC team. The ADC team consists of the presiding judge, state attorney, defense counsel, drug court coordinator, drug court case manager, probation officer/law enforcement, and community treatment providers. Upon approval for program entry, you will be instructed to report for your first ADC status hearing. Electing to enter ADC at this stage is of your choosing and is completely voluntary. However, once you enter ADC you may not elect to voluntarily withdraw. If you are placed into ADC as a condition of a sentence (condition of probation), then you have been offered the chance to avoid prison, and again, cannot voluntarily withdraw from the program. In either event, a representative from the State Attorney's Office will discuss the ADC program with you and a Public Defender or your private legal counsel will advise you of your options before you sign the participation agreement. Once you have entered the ADC program and exhausted your two (2) week orientation phase, only the presiding judge can terminate your participation. This condition exists for a very specific reason: to protect you from running away when/if the going gets tough. If quitting drugs and/or alcohol and restoring/re-building your life and family were easy, you wouldn't need to be in ADC.

On your initial court date you will sign your participation agreement, be assigned to a probation officer and case manager who will provide supervision and enforcement of the terms and conditions of ADC throughout your participation, and receive an appointment for orientation into ADC so that you can get started in the program right away. At the orientation appointment with your case manager, you will be provided with your participant manual which includes this handbook, phase petitions, sober-support meeting information, travel forms, and a calendar. Your case manager will review all materials in detail with you. You will complete a criminogenic risk assessment tool will also execute required program intake forms at this meeting which include a Release of Information, Release of Liability, Participant Information Form, Prohibited Substances Agreement, and a Participant Testing Policy along with an Orientation Checklist upon completion of the orientation meeting.

While in ADC you will be supervised by a case manager and by a probation officer with the Department of Corrections, either under pre-trial intervention supervision or formal probation supervision, and must comply with specific terms and conditions. Supervision will include unannounced home visits during which your person and residence will be subject to search. Court appointed defense counsel will represent you throughout your participation in ADC. If you have entered the program with private counsel, court appointed counsel familiar with the program shall automatically represent you unless you specifically request otherwise and your private counsel has agreed to appear as required.

Upon successful completion and graduation from ADC, if you entered into ADC voluntarily as part of a pre-trial intervention program/prosecution diversion, your successful completion and graduation from the program will result in having the charges against you dismissed. However, failure or termination from ADC will result in further prosecution of the pending charges by the State Attorney's Office. If you were sentenced to complete ADC as a condition of probation or in lieu of prison, you must complete and graduate from ADC in order to fully comply with your sentence. In this instance, failure or termination from ADC will result in an additional charge of Violation of Probation followed by prosecution and sentencing.

1.3 Program Progress/Graduation/Termination

1.3.1 Progress

Once you have successfully completed the criteria for each phase (as described in the phases section), you will advance to the next level and eventually be a candidate to graduate from ADC. This will not happen in less than twelve (12) months. It will be necessary to discuss your progress toward the goals you initially set and why you believe you have met the graduation criteria when the time comes.

1.3.2 Graduation

Approval for graduation from the program shall be determined by the ADC judge with input from the ADC team. Simply completing each phase of the ADC program does not guarantee graduation. You need to have demonstrated that you have learned from the structure and support you have received before the ADC team will agree to allow you to graduate. Your family will be invited to join you in court as the judge congratulates you on successfully completing ADC and achieving your goal to establish a drug-free life. Before graduating from ADC, you must complete a Program Exit Survey. If you entered ADC under a pre-trial intervention program/prosecution diversion basis, upon graduation your case will be dismissed by the State Attorney's Office. Your record relating to the arrest that resulted in your participation in ADC may be eligible to be sealed or expunged. After graduation, you will be provided with the necessary paperwork to apply for such relief. If you lose this packet, you can request a packet from the Clerk of Courts to proceed on your own behalf or retain an attorney to represent you. If you were sentenced as a condition of probation to this program you will have met that requirement of your sentence and could potentially have your probation terminated early. Your record will not likely be eligible to be sealed or expunged as your case will not have been dismissed. However, you may consult with an attorney to pursue such dismissal through further proceedings within the criminal division that your case was originally assigned.

1.3.3 Termination

Termination from ADC is evaluated on an individual basis. A decision to terminate participation will be made by the ADC Team. The decision to terminate may be made for any of the following reasons:

- Abandonment of treatment program
- Available treatment options have been exhausted and you are no longer working towards recovery
- New criminal charge/Concern for public safety
- Evidence that you are involved in any threatening, abusive, or violent verbal or physical behavior towards anyone
- Violating ADC rules (repeatedly)
- Evidence that you are involved with drug dealing or driving while under the influence
- Failure to attend ADC hearings
- Failure to make satisfactory progress
- Inability to pass required drug/alcohol screening tests for any reason
- Tampering with drug/alcohol screening tests
- Threat to the integrity of the program
- Use of synthetic substances/designer stimulants unable to be detected through normal screening processes

1.4 Participant Rights

1.4.1 Confidentiality

Your identity and privacy will be protected consistent with Florida law. In response to these regulations, policies and procedures have been developed which guard your confidentiality. You will be asked to sign a release of information authorizing the transfer of information among all participating agencies as well as a release of liability. Additionally, an identification number will be assigned to you that will be used in all research and evaluation activities to safeguard your identity. If you are employed, your employment may be terminated if contacted by a probation officer. If you think this may happen to you, tell your attorney, probation officer, and the judge. The judge may choose to enter a no-contact order on your behalf. This order would prevent your probation officer from contacting your employer for employment verification. However, in lieu of such contact, you will be required to provide regular pay stubs to your program officer as a means of verifying your employment. You are also expected to respect and maintain the confidentiality of others and can be held accountable for breaching confidentiality. If there are family members that you wish ADC not to speak with, make sure you indicate so on your release forms as “family” can refer to multiple people.

1.4.2 Waivers

You understand that by agreeing to participate in ADC, you are waiving your right to usual court proceedings during your participation time in ADC, such as questioning or disputing the legality of a search and seizure, a preliminary hearing, and a trial by jury or court. Admission into ADC requires acceptance of this responsibility. You also understand that admission, participation, graduation, and termination from ADC is entirely within the discretion of the ADC Team.

2.1 Court Appearances

As an ADC participant, you will be required to appear in ADC on a regular basis. At each appearance, the judge will be given a progress report prepared by the treatment provider, case manager, and the probation officer regarding your random drug and alcohol test results, attendance in all program services, and level of participation in all program services. The judge will ask you questions about your progress, and discuss any specific problems you have been experiencing. If you are doing well, you will be encouraged to continue with the program and work toward success and will earn incentives such as applause and recognition, phase advancement, certificates, and gift cards. If you are not doing well, the judge will discuss this with you and the treatment team to determine further action.

If you commit program violations (i.e.: positive or missed drug tests, failure to attend individual or group counseling sessions, failure to attend court or sober-support meetings, failure to report to your probation officer, etc.) the Court will impose sanctions. With repeated violations of program requirements, and a failure to progress satisfactorily, the Court may impose the ultimate sanction of termination from the program. Program violations and continued addict behavior will be responded to differently. If you are struggling with your sobriety and are honest with the ADC team, ADC will provide assistance in the form of treatment responses. Treatment responses and sanctions are very different and are described further in the Program Responses section of this handbook which also includes information pertaining to possible incentives.

Failure to appear in court on the date and time you are scheduled will likely result in a warrant for your arrest. If you cannot appear in court as scheduled, you must notify your probation officer or case manager as soon as possible to explain why you cannot appear. Claiming illness and/or transportation problems without substantiating such claims will not automatically permit you to miss your scheduled court dates. It is your responsibility to be present for court and to be on time. ADC understands that life goes on while you are participating in the program and that there may be times when you cannot appear on time for a program obligation. You must communicate with your case manager and probation officer ahead of time so that you are not considered as a “no show” or an “absconder” from the ADC program.

2.2 Program Rules

As an ADC participant, you will be required to know, understand and abide by these rules. Failure to follow these rules will result in sanctions.

1. Sign all agreements and releases necessary for entering the ADC program.
2. Report as required and/or requested for drug/alcohol testing.
 - You will be randomly tested for the presence of drugs and/or alcohol throughout participation in ADC at a minimum of two times per week. All specimen collections will be conducted on an observed basis meaning you will be closely visually monitored while providing a urine specimen. Further explanation of this monitoring process is included below. You will be assigned a drug testing color on the day you enter ADC. You may also be directed to test at any time during ADC participation by any ADC team member.
 - You must contact the Drug Testing Color Line 7 days a week by calling (904) 255-2444.
 - It is your responsibility to listen to each recorded message in its entirety and report as directed.

- The Drug Testing Color Line is automatically updated each morning at 6:00am. It is highly recommended that you call the color line no later than 10:00am to find out whether or not your color was called.
- If reporting Monday-Friday, you shall report to Clay Behavioral Health Center, located at 3292 County Road 220, Middleburg, Florida 32068 for testing when your color is called. You must report between the hours of 8:00am-5:15 pm unless otherwise instructed.
 - You are to sign in, be seated and be prepared to wait up to 30 minutes when reporting for testing.
- Testing that occurs on weekends and/or holidays will have reduced hours for reporting. If reporting on a Saturday or Sunday, the reporting time will generally be between the hours of 10:00am-2:00pm. You must pay attention to the recording on weekends/holidays to ensure that you report as required.
 - Calling the Drug Testing Color Line after the reporting time has ended on weekend/holidays will not be accepted as a reason for a missed test.
- In the event of a missed test, you are required to report for testing by 9:00am the next business day at Clay Behavioral Health Center, located at 3292 County Road 220, Middleburg, Florida 32068, or at the Probation Officer's office.
 - Reporting as required when you miss a test will not excuse your missed test. However, adhering to this policy will likely lessen the severity of the sanction.
- You will be sanctioned for providing or attempting to provide a dilute, adulterated or substituted urine specimen. Under such circumstances, you may receive multiple sanctions to address dishonesty and deception. Tampering with any drug/alcohol test will also be deemed a positive test which may result in a new arrest/criminal charge and may result in termination from the program (this includes flushing, diluting, using someone else's urine, etc.).
- When providing a urine specimen, you must provide a minimum amount of urine to be tested. This amount is indicated on the specimen collection container by a black temperature strip, which correlates to approximately thirty milliliters (30mls) of urine. Providing an insufficient volume of urine during the specimen collection process may be deemed as a program violation (if repetitive behavior) and sanctioned accordingly.
- You should not consume excessive fluids prior to providing a urine specimen. You are responsible for what you consume and claiming that you had too much to drink prior to providing a urine specimen will not be accepted as a valid reason for a dilute specimen. It is recommended that you do not consume more than one (1) cup of fluids in the hour leading up to providing a urine specimen. Also, you will not be permitted to consume more than one (1) cup of fluids in the presence of ADC staff prior to the urine specimen collection process.
- You are responsible for what you put into your body whether it is legal or illegal drugs or alcohol, prescription medications, over the counter medications, and food and/or drinks. There are substances as well as foods and drinks that may cross react with testing and cause false-positive test results. These items are included on the Prohibited Substances List. Attempting to claim that consumption of substances included on this list as a reason for testing positive will be a violation of ADC as you have previously been instructed not to consume these items.
- The monitoring/observation process exists to ensure the collection of valid urine specimens. While in ADC, you will be subject to direct observation of your person during the urine specimen collection process. This process consists of washing hands, removing outer clothing like jackets and sweaters, lowering bottoms to the ankles, lifting shirts and turning in a circle for a visual inspection, squatting and coughing (females), starting and stopping the urine flow and lastly, having someone monitor the urine leaving your body to ensure the urine is actually coming from you. This process may feel awkward and invasive but is necessary. Failure or refusal to abide by this policy will result in sanctions including possible removal from ADC.

The ADC judge will have access to all drug and alcohol test results including any failures to test. Additionally, any member of the ADC team may order a drug test at any time. A positive or “dirty” test will not automatically terminate you from the ADC Program; however, sanctions may be imposed. The judge will be reviewing your overall performance in the program when determining sanctions.

3. Do not use or possess any drugs or alcohol.
 - Sobriety is the primary focus of this program. Maintaining a drug free lifestyle is very important in the recovery process.
 - You are prohibited from using or possessing any unapproved legal or illegal drugs and/or alcohol (in any form).
 - You are prohibited from using or possessing certain prescription drugs/medications unless advanced approval is obtained, i.e.: Amphetamines (i.e.: Adderall, Pseudoephedrine); Barbiturates (i.e.: Butalbital, Fioricet,); Benzodiazepines (i.e.: Klonopin, Valium, Xanax); and/or Opioids/Opioid-Based substances (i.e.: Demerol, Dilaudid, Fentanyl, Lortab, Morphine, Oxycodone, Tylenol 3, Vicodin,).
 - Medication Assisted Treatment programs are permitted if deemed medically necessary and monitored pursuant to ADC policies.
 - You are prohibited from purchasing, filling a prescription for, possessing, or using any prescribed and/or over the counter drugs/medications without obtaining approval from ADC prior to purchasing or ingesting.
 - You must maintain compliance with all approved medications.
 - If you must seek medical attention, you are required to inform the physician that you are in a drug/alcohol treatment program and cannot be prescribed narcotic/addictive medications as take home medications. Medications provided by physicians in an inpatient/supervised setting (ER visit, hospital stay, office administered) are at the discretion of the physician.
 - You must submit copies of all medical documentation to the ADC case manager within twenty-four (24) hours of release.
 - If take home narcotic/addictive medications are determined to be medically necessary for your recovery, ADC will monitor your usage of such medications for the expected duration of use and will suspend all ADC participation/progress during such time.
 - You are strictly prohibited from using or possessing any and all “synthetic” or “designer drugs/stimulants” that can be purchased legally or illegally. Any and all “smoking mixtures” (other than products specifically designated to contain only tobacco) are also strictly prohibited. And, any and all products sold or marketed under false pretenses with the warning “not for human consumption” are also strictly prohibited.
 - Violation of this rule may result in immediate termination from ADC- regardless of other progress made.
 - You have made a commitment to a life free of drug/alcohol addiction. It is important for you to understand the connection between over-the-counter medications and relapse. Over-the-counter drug use (OTC) can become a serious problem for people recovering from drug and/or alcohol abuse. Improper use of over-the-counter medications can lead to relapse, health problems, and even death. A wide variety of the over-the-counter medications can be misused- from attempts to treat real illness, to self-medicate and, of course, for recreational purposes. All over-the-counter medications have a legitimate medical purpose; however, when used improperly (taking higher than recommended doses, or using more frequently than directed), these drugs can produce a range of potentially damaging effects, including relapse. OTC medications containing alcohol and those that can be used for mind-altering purposes are prohibited. The following are the most commonly abused over-the-counter medications:
 - Cold and cough medicines, especially over-the-counter cold and cough medicines that contain large amounts of alcohol or the chemical dextromethorphan (DXM).

- Pain relievers, over-the-counter pain relievers that contain acetaminophen and ibuprofen can be toxic when taken too frequently or in larger-than-recommended doses.
 - Diet pills and various types of over-the-counter diet medications may be abused for their stimulating effects, as well as their ability to suppress appetite.
 - Homeopathic preparations, vitamins and other supplements may be used to alter drug testing and must be approved before use while in ADC.
 - You must be alert to ingredients in OTC drugs to ensure you are properly using the medication and to prevent potential relapse. The first, and best, rule is to talk to the pharmacist. A pharmacist who understands addiction can guide you to medications that are safe and effective.
 - If you have to sign anything at the pharmacy counter to get a product it is something you should not be taking. You should carefully read medication labels to look for potential intoxicating ingredients.
 - Once you have determined an OTC drug that will work best for you, you will also need to get permission from ADC to take the medication. All medications that are being taken, whether OTC or prescribed, should be discussed with ADC. You are responsible for the substances you consume and how they affect a urine analysis.
 - Always ask the ADC case manager before buying and using any medications!
4. Report to Probation Officer as directed.
- You must report to a probation officer (PO) during the first week of each month. You must be prepared to provide a urine sample at each visit. If you have any problem making an appointment, you are to call your probation officer at 904-213-2930. Failure to report as required to a probation officer or failing to attend a schedule appointment/visit may result in sanctions and/or fines.
 - You must provide 24 hour notice of any cancelled probation appointment.
 - You must leave a voicemail or send an email/text message if you cannot reach your PO.
 - You must inform your PO of any change of address prior to changing locations.
 - You must inform your PO when you gain and/or change employment.
 - You must receive permission from a PO to leave Clay County (for day travel only).
 - Overnight travel requires submission of a travel form and approval from ADC.
 - You are subject to a search of your person, possessions, residence, and vehicle as determined by the PO (if applicable) or by any member of the ADC team.
 - ADC conducts random searches in addition to planned searches. Searches can take place at any time and any location. If you refuse to submit to such search procedures you are in violation of ADC.
 - Items and/or information obtained from your property (physical items, written, or electronic records) relating to direct or possible criminal activity involvement, discussions of other ADC/PSC participants and their programmatic status, participant/courtroom/treatment session photos, or other unapproved dissemination of ADC/PSC materials shall be a violation of ADC.
5. Remain in County of residence.
- You are required to remain in the county in which you reside. You may be given permission to leave your county for day trips by a PO. Overnight travel that requires you to leave your county is not permitted unless approved by the ADC judge and will likely not be approved for anything other than a family emergency and/or death. ADC is a privilege, not a right, and offers you an opportunity to receive help, not plan vacations. At no time will travel outside of the continental United States be authorized.

6. Avoid inappropriate places.
 - You may not work or visit places where alcohol is the primary item being dispensed, sold or marketed.
 - You may not work or visit places where illegal drugs are the primary item being dispensed, sold or marketed.
7. Attend all treatment sessions.
 - This includes individual and group counseling sessions, mental health appointments, educational sessions, and sober-support meetings. If you are unable to attend a scheduled session/appointment, you must contact your treatment provider/counselor. Failure to attend treatment or missing scheduled appointments will result in sanctions, fines, or may result in termination from ADC. All of the sessions are scheduled in advance so that you will be able to make arrangements with your employer and/or arrange for childcare. It is recommended that you exchange phone numbers with other group members in case you need transportation to or from group sessions.
8. Be on time.
 - If you are late for court sessions, 12-Step/sober-support meetings, mental health appointments, educational sessions, and/or group/individual treatment sessions, you may not be allowed to attend and will be considered non-compliant.
 - You should contact your case manager if there is a possibility you will be late or have an emergency that will cause you to miss your court appearance.
 - You should contact your assigned provider/counselor if there is a possibility you may be late or have an emergency that will cause you to miss your group/individual treatment session.
 - You must leave a voicemail or send an email/text message in the event you cannot reach your case manager or provider/counselor.
 - Claiming illness and/or transportation problems without substantiating such claim will not automatically permit you to miss your scheduled appointments. It is your responsibility to be present and to be on time. ADC understands that life goes on while you are participating in the program and that there may be times when you cannot appear on time for a program obligation/service. You must communicate ahead of time so that you are not considered as a “no show” or an “absconder” from the ADC program. Additionally, other participants may need the same service and could potentially be rescheduled into your appointment slot. Be courteous of the time of others.
9. Do not make threats toward other participants or staff or behave in a violent manner.
 - Violent or inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated and will be reported to the Court. This will result in termination from ADC.
10. No weapons.
 - You may not possess any firearms or weapons on your person or in your home or vehicle.
11. Behavior.
 - While in court, you are to wait for your case to be called, sit quietly, and listen to the proceedings. Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Upon addressing the Drug Court Judge/Judicial Officer, you are to be respectful and use the terms “Your Honor,” “Ma’am,” “Judge,” or “Sir.”
 - For your benefit as well as the benefit of all participants, proper behavior is expected to be followed by everyone; both in court and at treatment centers. All cell phones and/or electronic devices must be turned off in the courtroom and at treatment sessions. If found in use, these devices will be removed from your possession.

- Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated in treatment sessions. You will be removed from treatment sessions if not behaving in an acceptable manner. Such behavior shall be documented and reported to the ADC team and considered as a missed treatment session.
- When appearing for random drug/alcohol testing, you are to sign-in, sit quietly, and wait for your name to be called to begin the specimen collection process. All cell phones and/or electronic devices must be turned off when waiting in the lobby for this purpose. You are permitted to wait in the hallway outside of the lobby entrance if electronic devices must be used. Violations of this policy may result in removal from the courthouse/collection facility by security personnel and will result in ADC sanctions.

12. Intimate relationships with any other participants are not allowed.

- This includes romantic involvement as well as living with other participants.
 - “Other participants” includes participants of all 4th Circuit PSC programs.
- Violating this section is grounds for automatic termination from ADC.

13. Dress appropriately for court and treatment sessions.

- You will be expected to wear a shirt or blouse, pants, dress or skirt. If you are a male, you are also required to wear a tie in court. Shoes must be worn at all times. While you may be permitted to dress comfortably and casually for treatment sessions, you are not to wear shorts, tank-tops, flip-flops and/or hats when appearing for court. Clothing bearing drug or alcohol related themes or promoting/advertising alcohol or drug use is considered inappropriate. Sunglasses are not to be worn inside court or at treatment centers unless medically approved. You should speak with the treatment team if assistance with clothing is needed.

14. Do not engage in and/or commit any new criminal offenses.

- Warrants and/or new arrests could result in termination from ADC. This includes traffic related offenses. If you do not have a valid driver’s license DO NOT DRIVE. If you would like to obtain and/or regain a driver’s license you must let the treatment team know and the treatment team will see what assistance can be provided once you have demonstrated progress in ADC.

15. Associations.

- You will be subject to associational limits as determined by the ADC team. Active users, known felons, and individuals on probation shall be discussed with your case manager and PO, prior to associating with such individuals. This does not necessarily mean that contact will be prohibited. However, you are expected to avoid affiliation with non-law-abiding individuals, violence prone individuals, or individuals whom are actively using drugs or alcohol. Additionally, ADC may specifically prohibit associations with any individual deemed non-conducive to a life of recovery.
- Relationships with a spouse, significant other or partner, and even friends and family are an important aspect of recovery. The important people in your life can be a source of support for a clean and sober lifestyle. However, these people may also prevent you from reaching you goals and staying drug free. If the important people in your life use/abuse mood-altering substances, you may have to avoid them for the sake of your recovery and this may have to be accomplished through a court order limiting or prohibiting contact between you and the subject.

16. Participate in services with a case manager.
 - You will be assigned to a specially trained case manager. Case managers can be advocates and allies but will also be required to hold you responsible for your actions. You must maintain weekly contact with your case manager, by phone and through in-person visits. Case managers may request things from you, such as schedules and proof of services. Some participants may require a higher level of supervision than other participants. This “extra attention” is sometimes required and may be short-term or long-term, depending on individual progress. You should not measure your needs and services against others. Case managers are not “picking on you” and are not “out to get you” but are doing what is expected of them by the program. You are an individual, and individual needs will differ.

17. You must satisfy program related fees and cost prior to completion.
 - ADC has “participant fees” that are assessed to offset the cost of treatment services. Treatment services are provided to you at significantly reduced rates for program continuity. As a result, you are expected to contribute to your participation in the program by paying fees. This is considered to be your “buy in” into your program. Program fees may be paid throughout program participation (through an established schedule per phase).
 - At no such time will the inability to pay program fees prohibit program advancement or completion. If, upon verification, you are determined to be unable to pay you may have your fees converted to community service hours computed to a $10.00 per hour rate to satisfy this requirement.
 - This does not apply to court fines, probation fees, costs of supervision or restitution. Those are separate fees that are imposed on certain case disposition types and can only be waived or reduced to community service by the sentencing judge.

18. Follow the rules/follow instructions as they are given.
 - It is very important to follow all of the ADC rules. The judge will frequently remind you that “trying” is not “doing” and that just “trying” may result in termination from ADC. Examples of violations which could result in termination include multiple missed drug tests, consistently demonstrating a lack of program participation and/or continuously failing to follow instructions of the treatment provider, probation officer, case manager or the Court. Additionally, there are behaviors that you may choose to engage in that will subject you to immediate termination after only one offense.
 - Participation in ADC is a privilege. It is not a place to waste time and “fake it until you make it.” Doing so will likely result in receiving more jail time on program violation sanctions than you would have received on your underlying charge if not in ADC. If your case is returned to the criminal division for prosecution, you may not be entitled to credit for any program violation jail time served while in ADC.
 - You will undergo a review of progress after six (6) months of participation in ADC to determine if the level of participation is meeting expectations.
 - The rules in this handbook apply to all facilities, treatment providers and/or housing programs. The rules of the treatment provider/housing program apply as if they were issued directly by the ADC judge.
 - Following the rules is in your best interest. As you progress, consistently follow the rules and achieve goals, you will receive incentives from ADC. These incentives are described further in this handbook. In the same manner that poor behavior/choices is to be sanctioned, good behavior/choices is to be rewarded.

2.3 Program Fees

As a participant in ADC you are required to pay certain fees as listed below (minimum total of $561.20). If you are unable to pay fees, ADC will work with you to complete alternatives in lieu of payment until you have obtained employment.

Chapter Three: Treatment Services

3.1 Treatment Procedures

Your treatment will be provided through a team approach with the combined resources of the probation office and the assigned drug treatment staff. You will be provided with all materials needed to participate in the ADC program including participant handbooks and treatment manuals. The treatment provider will assess what level of treatment will best meet your needs and recommend to the ADC team that you receive either outpatient or residential treatment. If you are admitted to a residential treatment program, your treatment plan will include the requirements of that program. If you are not admitted into a residential treatment program, a multi-component, outpatient program will be developed for you which includes:

3.1.1 Treatment Plans

An “initial” treatment plan will be developed by you and your treatment team following an overall assessment of your problems and needs. The plan will act as a guide for your initial treatment phase and within it, you will set goals, select methods for meeting those goals, and develop target dates for achieving those goals. The plan will be maintained by your treatment provider and will be updated as you progress through the program. You will attend and participate in monthly “treatment plan review” meetings with your individual counselor. This is in addition to any other services your treatment provider has outlined for you in your treatment plan.

You should request and receive a copy of your treatment plan and refer to it often. If, at any time, you feel that you are not receiving the services outlined on your treatment plan or are not meeting the goals you have identified in your treatment plan, reach out to your counselor and case manager for assistance.

3.1.2 Counseling

Substance abuse counseling is comprised of two separate formats: individual and group. As part of your treatment plan, you will be required to participate in both types of counseling at various times. Together they are designed to help you develop self-awareness, realize your self-worth, and develop the strength to practice self-discipline. The individual and group counseling sessions will include problem identification and alternative solutions. Your counselors may utilize multiple treatment modalities/approaches to assist you in reaching your goals. All of these approaches are evidence-based practices and are chosen specifically because of their relevance to your issues. Your attendance and participation level in counseling sessions will be reported to the ADC team as part of your overall progress report. Your discussions in these sessions are confidential and will not be discussed with the judge or ADC team.

3.1.3 Dual Diagnosis Services

If it was determined during your assessment process that you have a co-occurring disorder (substance abuse and mental health disorder) or if you have self-reported an untreated mental health disorder a program to address these issues will be developed and incorporated into your treatment plan. If medication is required to adequately treat your condition, your physician will need to consult with the ADC team so that you are provided with approved medication. If you see a physician not associated with ADC, you will need to discuss this with your physician and obtain permission to take the medication from your case manager before you fill any prescriptions.

3.2 Sober Support Meetings

Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, Rational Recovery

Attending 12-Step/sober-support meetings such as Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, Rational Recovery or other sober-support meetings is required throughout ADC. The frequency of attendance requirement is determined by your progress in the program. The minimum attendance requirement for each phase is below:

- Phase 1: Daily (1 per day) AA/NA meetings are required during this phase.
- Phase 2: 2 AA/NA meetings are required per week during this phase.
- Phase 3: 3 AA/NA meetings are required per week during this phase.
- Phase 4: 4 AA/NA meetings are required per week during this phase.
- Phase 5: 4 AA/NA meetings are required per week during this phase.

Attending these meetings is an important part of your recovery. It will help familiarize you with recovery philosophies, help you develop levels of trust and help you create social bonds with other recovering addicts. Your treatment team will provide you with information regarding the time and location of 12-step/sober-support meetings and will also direct you to special interest and recovery events in the community. ADC will not force attendance of spiritually based support meetings. You will be provided with the option of attending secular meetings that are recognized as sober-support meetings if you request such alternative.

You must provide proof of having attended the required number of meetings at each court appearance. You will be required to submit a form containing information about all sober-support meetings attended. This form must be signed by the meeting CHAIRPERSON at each meeting you attended. DO NOT attempt to submit falsified 'fake' meeting attendance slips to the court as you will be sanctioned and may be terminated from ADC.

4.1 Program Phases

ADC is a five-phase, highly structured court-supervised treatment program lasting for a minimum of one year. Completion of all requirements is necessary before you may graduate and this may take significantly more than one year. Each phase consists of specified objectives, therapeutic and rehabilitative activities and specific requirements for advancement into the next phase. The components and requirements for advancement from each phase are described below.

You are responsible for completing ALL phase requirements before advancement can occur. You may submit a petition to move to the next phase only after you have completed each task listed on the applicable phase-up petition. It is important to remember that even if you can check off every task on the phase-up petition that you still might not be approved to phase up if you are not fully compliant with the program. Promotion or demotion between phases is subject to the order of the ADC judge. Promotion eligibility and phase advancements are not automatic, and are always based upon individual assessment. The ADC team may determine that it is not conducive to promote you even if you have met all promotion criteria. Thus, the following phase criteria are simply guidelines.

However, do not expect to be approved to phase up if you:

- Are not compliant with your treatment provider (attendance and participation)
- Are receiving a sanction on the day you would otherwise be eligible to phase up
- Have not completed a sanction that was ordered during your current phase

 - Phase-ups/Graduations will take place on the earliest available court date after eligibility has been reached

Chapter Five: Program Responses

5.1 Program Responses

An effective system of program responses promotes your ability to account for your actions. Program responses must be appropriate for your developmental level and graduated as you progress through the program. To motivate you, program responses will be applied in a way that is immediate, predictable, and consistent. Program responses will be tailored to your individual progress/needs. Program responses will also align with your specific capabilities. The ADC team will ascertain whether or not you are capable of meeting a certain goal at the current time. The ADC team will ascertain whether or not you are capable of adhering to a certain rule/policy at the current time. You will not be held liable for not meeting a goal or adhering to a rule/policy that you are deemed to not be capable of following at the current time, i.e.: abstinence, improvement in attitude, active participation in services. Your goals will be based on proximal and distal expectations: proximal for those items that can and should be expected immediately and distal for those items that can and should be expected as you progress in services.

5.1.1 Incentives

The ADC program recognizes the effort that it takes in attempting to improve behaviors, choices, and ultimately lifestyles. Incentives compel compliance and success in case outcomes. Incentives spotlight desired compliance and help to build trust between you and the ADC team. With that in mind, the Fourth Judicial Circuit ADC program recognizes all markers of success even if in a small way. Examples of behaviors/accomplishments that lead to incentives are included below.

Behaviors/Accomplishments		Possible Incentives/Responses
• 1 day clean/sober	• Obtaining employment	• Applause	• Gift Certificate
• Assisting others	• Obtaining GED/degree	• ADC outings (game days)	• Lunch with the ADC team
• Increased contact with child	• Outstanding accomplishment	• Books	• Praise from judge
• Infraction/Violation free for 60+ days	• Perfect attendance	• Candy	• Recognition certificate
• Maintaining employment	• Phase completion/advancement	• Coffee with the ADC team	• Recommendation letter for job
• Monthly report of being clean/sober	• Recognition of investment in program	• Curfew extension/removal	• Reduction of community service hours
• Multi-day clean/sober		• Decreased court appearances	• Reduction of supervision
• Obtaining driver's license		• Early dismissal from court	• Sobriety tokens
		• Early phase advancement	• Standing Ovation
		• Fishbowl drawings	• Travel privileges

5.1.2 Monitoring Devices

As a result of ADC non-compliance or as a method of additional monitoring for specific circumstances, you may be required by court order to wear a monitoring device. Such device may be a GPS ankle monitor, a SCRAM alcohol monitoring device, or a drug testing patch. ADC has established policies and procedures pertaining to the application and removal of such devices as indicted below.

If you are required to wear a monitoring device you may be required to do so at your own expense or at the expense of ADC. At times, the expense of the device may be split between you and ADC. This process depends on the reason for the application of the device. If you are otherwise compliant but struggling and may benefit from a form of additional monitoring, you will not be required to absorb the cost of the device. If you are not in compliance with the ADC program or have had a recent incident you will be required to absorb the cost of any such device or may have the cost of such device split with the program. This decision shall be at the discretion of the ADC judge.

If you are required to absorb the cost of such devices you will be required to maintain current payments with any providers or be subject to additional sanctions by ADC. If, at any point you are unable to pay balances on the monitoring device and this inability to pay is due to a legitimate, verified difficulty, ADC may elect to assume the cost of such device by leveraging community service hours against you in lieu of such fees.

5.1.3 Sanctions

If you fail to comply with the ADC program, the judge may order one or more of the following sanctions. Sanctions are graduated and individualized. Sanctions are not negotiable and are imposed in an effort to modify your behavior. Sanctions are not intended to be fun and will, most times, consist of hard work such as manual labor.

Punitive sanctions and treatment responses are very different. “Sanctions” that increase the level of treatment are considered treatment responses and are imposed to help and not punish you. Other sanctions are imposed in an effort to modify behavior so that you learn to make better choices. While sanctions may be viewed as punishment, the intention is to teach or inspire changes in your behavior. Sanctions are not imposed arbitrarily and are imposed after detailed discussion among the team and between you and the judge occurs.

Sanctions are imposed on an individual basis. Other participants in similar circumstances may receive different sanctions to what appear to you to be the same infraction. This is not unusual nor is it inappropriate. You are viewed as an individual and thus, your individual progress, attendance, and history is taken into account at each occurrence.

Examples of infractions that lead to sanctions are listed below. This is not a complete list and only represents possible sanctions that may be imposed. As needs arise and different situations occur, new sanctions may be developed and added to this list.

5.1.4 Therapeutic Adjustments

If you are honest about any use or fail to follow rules and/or expectations which you may not be fully capable of following you will be responded to with therapeutic adjustments referred to as “treatment responses”. If you are not responding to treatment interventions, but are otherwise compliant with treatment and supervision requirements, punitive sanctions will not be imposed. Treatment responses that increase your level of treatment are not sanctions. They are imposed to help you learn from your choices and to not repeat them and are designed to improve the overall effectiveness and response to the treatment episode.

Treatment-oriented responses for substance use while in ADC are based on the recommendation of treatment providers. Input from other team members will be permitted for thorough discussion with the ultimate recommendation being made by the treating providers. Examples of behaviors that lead to treatment responses are listed on the next page. This is not a complete list and only represents possible treatment responses that may be recommended.

5.1.5 Violation of Probation

If you are enrolled into ADC as a condition of probation you are subject to Violation of Probation procedures/proceedings as a result of certain infractions and/or non-compliance. Given the formal nature of violations of probation and the required actions that must be taken to file and dispose of such violations, this handbook outlines the procedure that ADC will follow with regard to violations of probation.

Florida law requires that if you are in ADC and are subject to the filing of a violation of probation that you have such violation of probation heard and disposed of within the ADC division. This rule applies unless the violation of the program rules results in rejection from ADC prior to the filing of the violation of probation. In this instance, the violation of probation would then be filed in the original criminal division. If you are not immediately rejected from ADC as a result of the program violation, the probation officer shall file the violation of probation in the ADC division, shall serve you with a copy of the violation of probation and shall have a hearing pertaining to the violation of probation set and heard by the ADC judge.

Chapter Six: Conclusion & Contacts

6.1 Conclusion

The ADC Program has been developed to help you achieve total abstinence from illicit and illegal drugs and all criminal activity. The program is designed to promote self-sufficiency and to return you to the community as a productive and responsible member. The judge, court staff, and the treatment team are present to guide and assist you, but the final responsibility is yours. You must be motivated to make this change and be committed to a drug free life. If you are unable or unwilling to complete the program you will not remain in the program very long. However, it is not your choice to simply withdraw from the program. Only the ADC judge can determine if you are to be terminated from the program and if terminated as a result of your noncompliance, you will likely be taken into custody upon termination from the program.

Honesty is always the best policy, especially when it comes to how the ADC program will respond to your actions/behavior. When you are honest with ADC, you are rewarded with credibility and trust. When you are dishonest with ADC, you lose that credibility and trust which will have a direct impact in how the ADC program responds to you. ADC is a tough, strict program and is not for those that do not want to change/improve their lives. If you want the help and are willing to let us help, we are here for you and will walk with you on your path to recovery. If, after learning about this program and completing an orientation meeting with your case manager, you decide that you do not want help, please speak with your attorney about your options before you complete phase 1.

Remember, the rules outlined in this handbook apply to all facilities, treatment providers and/or housing programs. These rules apply in the courtroom as issued by the ADC judge but also apply as though they were issued directly by the ADC judge at each facility, treatment provider, and/or housing program.

Upon completion of the ADC program, someone from the ADC team will contact you after you leave the program. The purpose of this follow-up is to get an idea of how people in ADC do after they leave and to measure how well the ADC program is doing. For this to occur, we ask that you provide your contact information upon program completion and that you update the ADC program if that information changes. You will not be identified individually or sanctioned in any way for your answers.

We hope this Handbook has been helpful to you and answered most of your questions. Important ADC telephone numbers are listed on the next page. Good luck to you!
