

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT, FOURTH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR
DUVAL COUNTY, FLORIDA

CASE NO: 16-2024-AP-000014
DIVISION: AP-A

WHITNEY TRANTHAM,
Petitioner,

v.

STATE OF FLORIDA, DEPARTMENT OF
HIGHWAY SAFETY AND MOTOR VEHICLES
Respondent.

April 7, 2025

PER CURIAM

Procedural due process was afforded to the Petitioner, and the record contains competent substantial evidence to support the agency's decision after the hearing to suspend the Petitioner's driver's license. Rule 15A-6.013(7), Fla. Admin. Code; 322.2615, Florida Statutes.

The hearing officer relied on the only evidence and testimony that was presented by law enforcement and/or introduced as evidence by the Petitioner. While the transcript of the hearing reflects that Petitioner's attorney referred to the law enforcement officer's dashcam video, the video was never presented as evidence or introduced into evidence by the Petitioner. On two occasions, the hearing officer announced the list of items that were introduced as evidence, and the video was not mentioned as an exhibit.

This Court cannot review items not introduced as evidence, and the burden of introducing relevant evidence rests with the Petitioner. Accordingly, Respondent's Motion to Strike the Video Evidence is GRANTED, and the Petition is DENIED.

COX, HORKAN, AND WALLACE, J.J., concur.

L. Lee Lockett, counsel for Petitioner.

Linsey Sims-Bohnenstiehl, counsel for Respondent.
