COUNTY, FLORIDA

CASE NO.:

DIVISION:

Plaintiff

v.

Defendant.

_____ /

ORDER SETTING CASE MANAGEMENT SCHEDULE FOR A JURY TRIAL IN A GENERAL CASE

Having conferred and designated this case as general pursuant to Administrative Order No.
2021-09,

It is ORDERED:

1. The maximum periods for the deadlines in jury trials are as follows:
 - (a) Plaintiff shall have 120 days from the date of filing the complaint to serve all Defendants. Extensions for service of the complaint shall be allowed upon a showing of good cause.
 - (b) The parties shall file the Case Management Order (CMO) within 30 days of service of the complaint on the first Defendant.
 - (c) The parties shall give notice of any potential additional parties within 90 days of the date of the CMO.
 - (d) All objections and motions directed to pleadings shall be resolved within 120 days of the date of the CMO.
 - (e) Additional parties shall be added within 180 days of the date of the CMO unless good cause is demonstrated.
 - (f) Fact discovery, including depositions of fact witnesses, shall be completed within 12 months of the date of the CMO.

- (g) Expert discovery, including expert depositions, shall be completed within 12 months of the date of the CMO.
 - (h) All pretrial motions shall be resolved before the pretrial conference.
 - (i) Mediation shall have occurred within 15 months of the date of the CMO.
 - (j) The projected trial date for this matter is 18 months from the date of filing the complaint.
2. The presiding judge will schedule a certain trial date when a case is at issue upon motion and notice of a party pursuant to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.440 and enter an Order Setting Case for Trial and Pretrial Conference. Any such pretrial order shall supersede the CMO.
 3. Failure to comply with the provisions of this Order may result in dismissal of the case or other sanctions.
 4. The Plaintiff shall promptly notify the presiding judge if the case is settled.
 5. Plaintiff shall serve a copy of this Order along with the summons upon all other parties.
 6. Any party may seek modification of this Order for cause shown.
